Name of Contact:
Title:
Contact Info:
What is the best way for participants to contact you?
What have you produced before?	Our clients have a range of credits too numerous to list here.
INTERESTS
What do you want to do in the future? What are you looking for?	We manage writers and directors, and look for potential clients as well as having links to some major stars with a view to finding material. We also help with packaging for clients' projects.
Film and TV, or both?	Primarily film, although our clients do TV projects too.
What types of scripts are you looking for?	Specifically, from new writers, good, original thrillers, and comedies with young female leads.
Do you consider new writers?	Yes.
What makes the perfect writer for your company?	Talent, flexibility, and being easy to work with!
Are you looking for interns? What would they be doing? Is there any compensation, financial or otherwise?	Not at the moment, but possibly an office intern in the near future. No compensation but a guaranteed learning environment.
What are your goals for the pitchfest?	I always like to see what's out there
Does a writer have to have an agent?	No.
Anything else you would like to add?	I read hundreds of queries and tens of screenplays in the space of a month. The majority of these are unoriginal and unintelligent – blast me with a quirky idea that has had a lot of thought poured into it, and that I call tell works, and is saleable, from the logline. It is easy!
How do you finance your pictures? Studio or Independent? Budget range?	Again, our clients work within a wide range; one is just starting to shoot a $500k pic in Austin, whilst others have $15 million projects on the go. Most are independently financed.
Do you read winners from screenplay competitions?	Yes
Do you manage writers?	Yes
