NIAD MANAGEMENT

GENERAL INFORMATION
Boutique management company formed by former ICM exec Wendi Niad. We represent writers, directors and talent.
INTERESTS
What has your company produced? For what studios or networks?	We're primarily a management company.
What do you want to do in the future? What are you looking for?	We're always looking for high concept, commercial, brilliantly-written feature scripts.
Film, TV, or both?	Mainly film
In terms of material, is there anything that you are specifically looking for right now?	Right now we're looking for broad comedy, but a great script is a great script in any genre.
Do you consider new writers?	Yes
What makes the ideal writer for your company?	Someone who is prolific and can take notes.
Are you looking for interns? What would they be doing? Is there any compensation, financial or otherwise?	We have 3-month internships available (usually 4 a year).
What are your goals for the pitchfest?	To find great scripts.
Does a writer have to have an agent for you to consider them?	No.
How do you finance your pictures? Studio or Independent? Budget range?	We submit scripts to studios and production companies for consideration.
Do you manage writers?	Yes, on average 10-12 at any given time.
What advice do you have for the writers who meet with you?	Have fun with it.
Does a writer have to be produced for you to consider them?	No

Do you read requested scripts, or do you have someone read for you? What is your process?	We personally read everything we request.
Is there any advice you would like to offer the writers who are pitching you? Any advice for writers trying to break in?	Move to Los Angeles. Network. Explore every angle. There is no wrong way in. Before you do any of this, however, make sure you are writing at a competitive level.
Is there anything else you would like to add? About yourself? Your position? Your company, or the industry?	We're looking forward to hearing some good pitches.
