INTERESTS
What has your company produced? For what studios or networks?
What do you want to do in the future? What are you looking for?	High concept, big films, recognizable titles.
Film, TV, or both?	Film
In terms of material, is there anything that you are specifically looking for right now?
Do you consider new writers?	Yes.
What makes the ideal writer for your company?	Writers that share our vision, that are collaborative.
Can you share any pitchfest success stories with us? Have you signed or represented a writer from our pitchfest before?
Are you looking for interns? What would they be doing? Is there any compensation, financial or otherwise?	In the Fall, yes. They will do script coverage, market research, clerical. No pay, but compensation. Must be for college credit.
What are your goals for the pitchfest?	First time — coming with an open mind, looking for new talent.
Does a writer have to have an agent for you to consider them?	No.
How do you finance your pictures? Studio or Independent? Budget range?	Both — depends on film.

Do you manage writers?	No.
Does a writer have to be produced for you to consider them?	No.
Do you read requested scripts, or do you have someone read for you? What is your process?	I try to read them all, but the nature of the beast usually requires interns to read the first pass.
Is there any advice you would like to offer the writers who are pitching you? Any advice for writers trying to break in?	Write, write, write... read a lot of scripts and watch a lot of movies and television shows — know what's out there.
Is there anything else you would like to add? About yourself? Your position? Your company, or the industry?
